IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
SIDE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL APPLICATION NO.4600 OF 2006

Farooque Ahmed Bhat ...Applicant.
V/s.
The State of Maharashtra ...Respondent.

Mr.Murtaza M. Najmi, adv. for the Applicant.
Mr.Y.S.Shinde, APP for the Respondent/State.

CORAM: J.H.BHATIA, J.
DATE : 12TH April, 2007.

P.C.:

1. Heard Mr.Najmi advocate appointed for the applicant, who is in jail and Mr.Shinde, the learned APP for the State.

2. The applicant, who was detained in the Central Jail, Aurangabad had made this application for his transfer through jail requesting that he is from Kashmir and because of his detention in Aurangabad, he is unable to meet his parents and also that there is case against him in the Kashmir. Therefore, he wanted his transfer from Aurangabad jail to Baramulla jail in Kashmir. As per the report received from Superintendent, Aurangabad Central Prison, the applicant, who was convicted by the Sessions Court, Thane in Sessions Case No.112 of 2002 has been released in view of the order passed by the High Court and communicated by the Sessions Court. As he was required in another case at Baramulla, he is already transferred to Baramulla Jail on 30th December, 2006. In view of this report the present application has become infructuous and application stands disposed off accordingly.
